Holiday 2009

With the holidays fast approaching and the hustle and bustle that goes into getting ready for the holidays, what better time to come in and enjoy some pampering and relaxation. Keep in mind during this holiday season that giving the gift of relaxation through one of our gift cards makes the perfect gift. We are also very excited about our new signature line of soy candles from Maddison Avenue, which are non-toxic and lead free, so they are great for the environment. We wish all of you safe and happy holidays and look forward to seeing you soon.
